Cathryn graduated in Fine Arts at Queen's University in 1977, where she then went on to study at the Banff School of Fine Arts until 1979. Prior to immigrating to Australia in 1984, she exhibited widely across Canada, receiving a Canada Council Grant and an award from the Print & Drawing Council of Canada in 1980. She received her MEd in Visual Arts in 1999 from UTS, Sydney.

Cathryn has worked in Australia as a Senior Art Director, Illustrator, and Teacher since 1984. More recently she was a Full Time Lecturer in Visual Communication at Insearch, which is affiliated with the University of Technology, Sydney.

“Over the past 6 years water has been my subject of interest. I am currently exploring its transparent and opaque properties, and endeavouring to produce works that have simultaneous qualities of abstraction and realism.”
